

Pentecost Weekend

“The Advocate, the Holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name—He will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you.” John 14:26

The Third Pillar of Christian Stewardship: Formation

Imagine a mother being in the hospital as her child is born. She holds the baby for the first time, falls deeply in love and says “I am a mother.” After she says those words, she gets up and disappears, never seeing her child again and never loving the child.

Now, think of someone who has just come to the Faith. They have gone through RCIA, were baptized at the Easter Vigil Mass and then proceeded to go out and live an un-Christian life. There is a comparison between these two stories that teach us that to truly be something, you must live it. Being a Christian is in no way different. We need to be constantly forming our faith. We cannot become stagnant. Think of the Sacraments as workouts and our spirit as our body. The more we go to Mass, the more we go to confession, the more we adore Christ in Adoration... the more we grow as Christians.

Is the Holy Spirit guiding you to something today? Perhaps God is calling you to help others in their faith formation. God may be calling you to form the faith of others through CCD or RCIA, or maybe to guide parents and Godparents as they prepare to Baptize their child. Listen to God and speak to your pastor to see where God may want you.
